

Libby

Libby loves going to camp with her Dad, where she gets to run around and follow her nose. As a beagle, she loves that. She absolutely loves her brother, our first dog Dexter, and has become great friends with my parents dog Chico, as well as a lot of the neighborhood dogs. She loves to go on walks, and run around on her runner out back when it is warm out.

Some of my proudest moments are when I see her and our other dog, Dexter, laying on the couch cuddled up together. They will clean each other, and you can tell that they love each other. I love it when she plops down and rolls on her back for a belly rub. I absolutely cannot imagine anyone ever giving up this dog for adoption and we are SO lucky to have found her!
