

Katland

I stopped by the Animal Refuge League on Saturday hoping to return home with the perfect feline friend - and I'm happy to report that I was successful! I adopted Katland, who is a Purple Private Investigator and seemed to be a perfect match for me; however, there was some question as to whether or not she would be interested in sharing as much affection and cuddling as I was hoping for. She was somewhat reserved while at the shelter, often growling and hissing when she was uncomfortable. Well, she still growls once in a while, but 98% of the time she is a complete lovebug! She likes to sit in my lap (and even fell asleep in my lap twice!) and last night she hopped up on my bed in the middle of the night and made herself comfortable. She follows me around to see what I'm doing. She rolls around on the floor and lets me rub her belly. She's just a total sweetheart! I was advised to keep her in one room for the first week or so... but that only lasted about 20 minutes! She wanted to see the rest of the place and, since my condo is only 800 square feet, I didn't see any reason to deny her. She has made herself right at home. It's hard for me to believe we've only been together a few days because we're such a nice fit for one another; it's like we've been buddies forever!
